We would be grateful for any teddies that could be brought in – please could they be of medium size (around 12 inches), clean and not branded.

Toiletries – toothbrushes and toothpaste (there is a box in the back corner of the church).

Mid Wales Unitarians

On March 22nd Jen will again be leading us, on a walk at Pennant Melangell (<https://stmelangell.org/>). This walk is closer to Shrewsbury than many, so we're very much extending the invitation to our friends in the Shrewsbury Unitarian congregation, and some of us are planning to attend the Shrewsbury service in the morning and have some lunch together before the walk. We hope you can join us for some or all of the day.

On June 21st we are planning a daytrip! We are going to join our friends at Gellionnen chapel (near Pontadarwe: <https://gellionnen.org/>) for their morning service and then join them on a community walk to nearby Carn Llechart stone circle. Thanks to our funding from the Wood Green Trust we can hire a minibus for this day, and it will be a wonderful visit - Jen and I have visited the chapel before and it really is a gem!

Other plans for Mid Wales Unitarians are coming together, including for a regular online devotional space. If you'd like to organise something please do throw yourself in! We're very much a 'ground up' group. If there's something you'd enjoy and find spiritually nourishing, there will be others of us who will too!

All best wishes
Mel
